

Social and Personal

ANOTHER attractive house party will be entertained this month by Louise Williams who is hostess at her summer home near Bland. The guests have been invited for the first ten days in August, and will include Miss Kathleen Bibb, of Richmond; Miss Katherine Pliner, of Suffolk; Misses Helen Orey and Lucy Williams, of Wytheville; Messrs. B. Williams, of Roanoke; Black Lloyd, of Suffolk; John McLaugherty, of Roanoke; William Werth and Alex St. Claire, of Tazewell.

Miss Williams has already issued invitations for a dance to be given to-morrow evening in honor of her house guests, and various affairs will fill the next several days very pleasantly for the house party.

Going Abroad.
Dr. and Mrs. J. Allison Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Travers are sailing for Europe to-day. Mrs. Travers will be from New York and will be absent abroad for the next two months.

Mrs. Mina Loth, of this city, is also going abroad to-day. Mrs. Loth will sail from New York on board the North German Lloyd liner Kronprinz Wilhelm.

On Motor Trip.
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Whitehurst, who are at present at the University of Virginia as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Harmon at "Hillside," will leave Thursday morning for a trip through the Virginia Valley in their automobile. Mr. and Mrs. Whitehurst will be accompanied on their motor trip by Miss Aileen Covardin and Miss Rosalie Milnes. They will stop at Natural Bridge for a short time, and will also visit friends in Roanoke, going later to the Yellow Sulphur Springs, where they will join Mr. Benjamin Milnes for a few weeks.

The Payne-Harmon wedding will take place to-morrow evening in the chapel at the University of Virginia, and will be a big society affair.

Miss Chilton Entertained.
The Norfolk Virginian-Pilot of last Tuesday evening at a delightful porch party at her home, Ingleade, in honor of Miss Alice Chilton, of Lancaster county, who is the guest of Miss Genevieve Gresham in Court Street, Portsmouth. The lawn and porch were hung with lighted lanterns, and dancing constituted the evening's entertainment.

Those present in addition to the guests of honor were: Mr. and Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. N. W. Kellam, Misses Genevieve Gresham, Marguerite Donagan, Annie and Vera Tignor, Laura Huggins, Jeannette Brucet, Dorothy Robertson, Virginia Blackwell, of Memphis, Tenn., and Lorraine Carney; Messrs. Frank Hollowell, Robert Kent, Vernon Gresham, E. D. Sparks, Robert Albertson, Ike Farmer, Hilley Hope and Edgar Trant.

Sympathy for Mrs. Latham.
Letters received in Richmond regarding the death in Memphis, Tenn., on July 24, of Judge Thomas J. Latham, an awoken a feeling of sincere sympathy on behalf of his widow, who has played a prominent part in many Confederate gatherings held in Richmond.

Mrs. Latham was a member of the Jefferson Davis Monument Association and a former president of the Tennessee division, also president of the Forest Monument Association. At the recent convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy Mrs. Latham gave $500 to the Arlington monument. Her late husband was the principal figure in many movements for the development of Memphis, and was prominent in its professional and business life.

Norfolk Engagements.
Mr. and Mrs. A. Prius have announced the engagement of their daughter, Allie Arabella, to Norman F. Hall. The wedding will be celebrated in Norfolk some time in the coming fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnston, also of Norfolk, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Emily Fuller, to Dr. J. Warren White, formerly of Charlotte county, now of Norfolk. Miss Johnston's marriage will be a brilliant event of the late autumn season in Norfolk.

In Atlantic City.
Captain and Mrs. Andrew Pizzini, Jr., who have been occupying their cottage in Atlantic City for the past month, have entertained a number of guests for several weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Pizzini guests have been their daughter, Mrs. Alex. M. Paul, and child, of Boston, Mass.; their son, Andrew J. Pizzini, and his wife, of New York; their grandson, Kenneth Raynor Cobb, of Washington and Lee University, and Mr. and Mrs. Philip T. Post, of Hampton. Mr. and Mrs. Post have been spending their honeymoon traveling in the North. Mrs. Post was formerly Miss Ethel McCaw, of Richmond.

B. T. Pison, formerly of this city, now of Washington, is spending some time in Atlantic City, where he is recovering from a serious operation, which he had to undergo in June. Mr. Pison is with his family at their cottage, Derby Place, Atlantic City.

Home Wedding.
The marriage of Miss Ella Parker and W. T. Watkins took place on Monday afternoon, July 23, at half-past three o'clock, in the home of the bride, near Tamworth. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of the groom. Among the guests from a distance present were Mrs. W. M. Henley and Miss Grace Cohn, of that place. Leslie Watkins and Miss Rosa Watkins, also of Richmond.

Hunt-Herbert.
The Rev. R. H. Potts officiated at the wedding of Miss Mabel Herbert and Clarence Reginald Hunt, of Portsmouth, which took place on Saturday afternoon. Mr. Hunt was originally from Toronto, Canada, and is a son of Judge Richard Hunt, of that place. He is a grandson of the late Sir Reginald Hunt, of the English navy, and is just now making his home in Portsmouth. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Herbert, of Portsmouth. After spending several days in this city, Mr. and Mrs. Hunt will leave for their home in Portsmouth.

In and Out of Town.
Miss Parker Conrad left town Saturday to spend two weeks with relatives at Indian Camp.

Misses Eunice and Rochet Watkins were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Haskins Hobson at "Mount Airy," for the weekend.

Joseph Dalton, of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, is visiting friends in this city for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cameron, Jr., are spending some time at Bretton Woods.

Miss Margie Gough and Mrs. I. B. Rider are at Ocean View and will later spend some time in the mountains.

Misses Lella Giddin, Marion Gordon, Beale Black and Eva B. Howie will return to the city in a few days, after attending the summer school at the University of Virginia.

Attorney-General Samuel W. Williams is spending a week at his home in this city.

Mrs. Annie Bryant and her daughter, Miss Hattie Bryant, left yesterday for Mount Elliott Springs.

Mrs. W. Rice and daughter, Helen, are spending the summer at the Orkney Springs.

Mrs. R. H. Fennell, of this city, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. J. H. Beazley, in Louisa county.

Mrs. Norwood and children and her cousin, Miss Hattie Sparkard were recent guests of Mrs. R. T. Hunter on their way from Marion, S. C., to New York.

Mrs. Gideon Davenport has gone to Holland and will join her daughters, who are traveling in Europe for the remainder of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Gracien Fairbank and children, Misses Gracien and Elizabeth Fairbank, will spend the remainder of the summer at the Chester Hotel in Chester.

Miss Meta Randolph, who was operated on two weeks ago for appendicitis at the Memorial Hospital, has been moved to her home, 919 Floyd Avenue.

Miss Rena King has returned to her home on Floyd Avenue, after spending several days at Chester as the guest of Miss Margaret Thaw.

Mrs. Frank C. Lertz and daughters, Catherine and Effie, of Newport News, are visiting the former's niece, Mrs. T. J. Sanderlin, on North Twenty-fifth Street.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Moncre are in Richmond, after spending several weeks at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gilmore, of Atlanta, who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Miller here last week, have returned to "Woodlawn," in Louisa county for the remainder of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Meara, who have been in Atlantic City at the Hotel Lexington for two weeks, will return to Richmond Friday.

Mr. Hart and Miss Hart, of Rocky Mount, N. C., are spending several days at 215 East Franklin Street.

Loose Lives in Fire.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Green Bay, Va., July 31.—The home of Grant Stokes, colored, near here, was destroyed by fire Saturday night, and three of his children were burned, one of them so badly that it died to-day. A colored woman was so badly burned that death resulted. Two of the children are now hovering between life and death, and the physician holds out very little hope of recovery for either of them.

ROBBER DISSATISFIED WITH SIZE OF HIS "HAUL"
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Suffolk, Va., July 31.—The next time I hold you up and you don't produce more than this, I'm going to kill you. Now go.
This was the final warning given to-day to "Major" Thwait, a negro section hand, who was held up at the point of a gun by an unknown white highwayman near Lummis. The robber got two bunches of keys, a pocket handkerchief, 41 cents in cash, and a full dinner pail. The highwayman escaped.

Farmers' Institutes will be held in the Rappahannock Valley under the auspices of the State Department of Agriculture, at the following places on the dates named: The Hague, Westmoreland county, August 15; Warsaw, Richmond county, August 16; Heathsville, Northumberland county, August 17; Kilmarnock, Lancaster county, August 18; Middlesex county, August 19; Springs, Middlesex county, August 22; Tappanahock, Essex county, August 23; Middlesex county, August 24; Mangochick, in King William county, August 25, and at Bowling Green, in Caroline county, August 26. Tidewater District Convention of the Christian Churches will meet at Rappahannock Church, in Essex county, on August 2, 3 and 4.

The Roney gold mine property in Spotsylvania county, containing 75 acres, was sold here at public auction by F. M. Chichester, Lee J. Graves and G. R. Swift and purchased by Z. B. Faulkner, of Spotsylvania, for $7,500.

The drought which has been prevailing in this section for months is the most severe and destructive for many years. The farmers are despondent over the condition of their crops and even with a good season from now on they could not obtain more than one-fourth of a yield. W. H. DeShazo, one of the most extensive farmers of Kings George county, has 250 acres in corn growing in the water. He usually has a tremendous crop, probably from 1,500 to 2,000 barrels. Now he says he will consider himself lucky if he makes 250 barrels. There are similar cases in all of the surrounding counties.

Rev. W. F. Dunaway, D. D., of Lancaster county, has tendered his resignation as pastor of four Baptist churches in that county, to take effect at the close of the present year.

C. E. Blinn, a prominent farmer of Middlesex county, is offering an experiment in irrigating his cornfields. He has a large pump driven by a five-horse-power gasoline engine to pump water from two creeks on his farm. He has one half-mile of two-inch pipe stretched across his cornfields.

OLD SOLDIERS HAVE REUNION
Gala Day at Old Fluvanna When Veterans Meet on Courthouse Green.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Palmyra, Va., July 31.—The last Saturday in July is always a gala day for Fluvanna's "Old Soldiers" day brings together on the courthouse green men, women and children from every part of the county, and many from adjoining counties. It is a remarkable fact that since the Fluvanna Camp of Confederate Veterans was organized in 1896, with the late Colonel William B. Pettit as commander, the annual reunion day has been a perfect day for an all-day picnic. Saturday was an ideal day for the occasion, and the crowd of happy, hard-working old people and groups of merry girls and boys was unusually large.

Captain Charles Sneed, commander, called the camp together at 1 o'clock with about seventy veterans present. Since the last reunion eleven have answered the final roll call. Mr. Haden made a short and appropriate memorial address, and St. George Bryan presented to the camp a full-length picture of the late commander, Colonel B. E. Russell. The "promotional" address, and held the crowd with the history, humor and pathos of the years "old-timer" high. He paid high tribute to the soldiers of Fluvanna, and closed with a beautiful original poem. Dinner was served under the trees, first to the soldiers and then to the crowd, with plenty to spare. In the afternoon the camp again convened, and after transacting the usual business, listened with much pleasure to patriotic addresses delivered by George Sneed and Edlow Sneed, talented sons of veterans.

Refreshments were served on the grounds during the day for the benefit of the Methodist parsonage, and an entertaining minstrel show was given for the same purpose in the courthouse by the young people of "Wealeys Chapel."

Have Earned a Rest.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., July 31.—William H. "Old Soldier" was known farmer of Stafford county, had up to a few days ago three horses, aged respectively thirty-nine, thirty-seven and twenty years. One of them, aged thirty-seven, died last week. The one thirty-nine years old is now on the pension list, and the one at twenty years is doing active duty.

Snow White Skirts

New panel front and back. Some button trimmed, others perfectly plain tail-ored $1.00

Kaufmann & Co.

Monday morning contains the following article of interest to society in Richmond:

"Mrs. S. B. Carney, Jr., entertained last Tuesday evening at a delightful porch party at her home, Ingleade, in honor of Miss Alice Chilton, of Lancaster county, who is the guest of Miss Genevieve Gresham in Court Street, Portsmouth. The lawn and porch were hung with lighted lanterns, and dancing constituted the evening's entertainment.

Those present in addition to the guests of honor were: Mr. and Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. N. W. Kellam, Misses Genevieve Gresham, Marguerite Donagan, Annie and Vera Tignor, Laura Huggins, Jeannette Brucet, Dorothy Robertson, Virginia Blackwell, of Memphis, Tenn., and Lorraine Carney; Messrs. Frank Hollowell, Robert Kent, Vernon Gresham, E. D. Sparks, Robert Albertson, Ike Farmer, Hilley Hope and Edgar Trant."

Sympathy for Mrs. Latham.
Letters received in Richmond regarding the death in Memphis, Tenn., on July 24, of Judge Thomas J. Latham, an awoken a feeling of sincere sympathy on behalf of his widow, who has played a prominent part in many Confederate gatherings held in Richmond.

Mrs. Latham was a member of the Jefferson Davis Monument Association and a former president of the Tennessee division, also president of the Forest Monument Association. At the recent convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy Mrs. Latham gave $500 to the Arlington monument. Her late husband was the principal figure in many movements for the development of Memphis, and was prominent in its professional and business life.

Norfolk Engagements.
Mr. and Mrs. A. Prius have announced the engagement of their daughter, Allie Arabella, to Norman F. Hall. The wedding will be celebrated in Norfolk some time in the coming fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnston, also of Norfolk, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Emily Fuller, to Dr. J. Warren White, formerly of Charlotte county, now of Norfolk. Miss Johnston's marriage will be a brilliant event of the late autumn season in Norfolk.

In Atlantic City.
Captain and Mrs. Andrew Pizzini, Jr., who have been occupying their cottage in Atlantic City for the past month, have entertained a number of guests for several weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Pizzini guests have been their daughter, Mrs. Alex. M. Paul, and child, of Boston, Mass.; their son, Andrew J. Pizzini, and his wife, of New York; their grandson, Kenneth Raynor Cobb, of Washington and Lee University, and Mr. and Mrs. Philip T. Post, of Hampton. Mr. and Mrs. Post have been spending their honeymoon traveling in the North. Mrs. Post was formerly Miss Ethel McCaw, of Richmond.

B. T. Pison, formerly of this city, now of Washington, is spending some time in Atlantic City, where he is recovering from a serious operation, which he had to undergo in June. Mr. Pison is with his family at their cottage, Derby Place, Atlantic City.

Home Wedding.
The marriage of Miss Ella Parker and W. T. Watkins took place on Monday afternoon, July 23, at half-past three o'clock, in the home of the bride, near Tamworth. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of the groom. Among the guests from a distance present were Mrs. W. M. Henley and Miss Grace Cohn, of that place. Leslie Watkins and Miss Rosa Watkins, also of Richmond.

Hunt-Herbert.
The Rev. R. H. Potts officiated at the wedding of Miss Mabel Herbert and Clarence Reginald Hunt, of Portsmouth, which took place on Saturday afternoon. Mr. Hunt was originally from Toronto, Canada, and is a son of Judge Richard Hunt, of that place. He is a grandson of the late Sir Reginald Hunt, of the English navy, and is just now making his home in Portsmouth. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Herbert, of Portsmouth. After spending several days in this city, Mr. and Mrs. Hunt will leave for their home in Portsmouth.

In and Out of Town.
Miss Parker Conrad left town Saturday to spend two weeks with relatives at Indian Camp.

Misses Eunice and Rochet Watkins were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Haskins Hobson at "Mount Airy," for the weekend.

Joseph Dalton, of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, is visiting friends in this city for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cameron, Jr., are spending some time at Bretton Woods.

Miss Margie Gough and Mrs. I. B. Rider are at Ocean View and will later spend some time in the mountains.

Misses Lella Giddin, Marion Gordon, Beale Black and Eva B. Howie will return to the city in a few days, after attending the summer school at the University of Virginia.

Attorney-General Samuel W. Williams is spending a week at his home in this city.

Mrs. Annie Bryant and her daughter, Miss Hattie Bryant, left yesterday for Mount Elliott Springs.

Mrs. W. Rice and daughter, Helen, are spending the summer at the Orkney Springs.

Mrs. R. H. Fennell, of this city, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. J. H. Beazley, in Louisa county.

Mrs. Norwood and children and her cousin, Miss Hattie Sparkard were recent guests of Mrs. R. T. Hunter on their way from Marion, S. C., to New York.

Mrs. Gideon Davenport has gone to Holland and will join her daughters, who are traveling in Europe for the remainder of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Gracien Fairbank and children, Misses Gracien and Elizabeth Fairbank, will spend the remainder of the summer at the Chester Hotel in Chester.

Miss Meta Randolph, who was operated on two weeks ago for appendicitis at the Memorial Hospital, has been moved to her home, 919 Floyd Avenue.

Miss Rena King has returned to her home on Floyd Avenue, after spending several days at Chester as the guest of Miss Margaret Thaw.

Mrs. Frank C. Lertz and daughters, Catherine and Effie, of Newport News, are visiting the former's niece, Mrs. T. J. Sanderlin, on North Twenty-fifth Street.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Moncre are in Richmond, after spending several weeks at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gilmore, of Atlanta, who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Miller here last week, have returned to "Woodlawn," in Louisa county for the remainder of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Meara, who have been in Atlantic City at the Hotel Lexington for two weeks, will return to Richmond Friday.

Mr. Hart and Miss Hart, of Rocky Mount, N. C., are spending several days at 215 East Franklin Street.

Loose Lives in Fire.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Green Bay, Va., July 31.—The home of Grant Stokes, colored, near here, was destroyed by fire Saturday night, and three of his children were burned, one of them so badly that it died to-day. A colored woman was so badly burned that death resulted. Two of the children are now hovering between life and death, and the physician holds out very little hope of recovery for either of them.

ROBBER DISSATISFIED WITH SIZE OF HIS "HAUL"
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Suffolk, Va., July 31.—The next time I hold you up and you don't produce more than this, I'm going to kill you. Now go.
This was the final warning given to-day to "Major" Thwait, a negro section hand, who was held up at the point of a gun by an unknown white highwayman near Lummis. The robber got two bunches of keys, a pocket handkerchief, 41 cents in cash, and a full dinner pail. The highwayman escaped.

Farmers' Institutes will be held in the Rappahannock Valley under the auspices of the State Department of Agriculture, at the following places on the dates named: The Hague, Westmoreland county, August 15; Warsaw, Richmond county, August 16; Heathsville, Northumberland county, August 17; Kilmarnock, Lancaster county, August 18; Middlesex county, August 19; Springs, Middlesex county, August 22; Tappanahock, Essex county, August 23; Middlesex county, August 24; Mangochick, in King William county, August 25, and at Bowling Green, in Caroline county, August 26. Tidewater District Convention of the Christian Churches will meet at Rappahannock Church, in Essex county, on August 2, 3 and 4.

The Roney gold mine property in Spotsylvania county, containing 75 acres, was sold here at public auction by F. M. Chichester, Lee J. Graves and G. R. Swift and purchased by Z. B. Faulkner, of Spotsylvania, for $7,500.

The drought which has been prevailing in this section for months is the most severe and destructive for many years. The farmers are despondent over the condition of their crops and even with a good season from now on they could not obtain more than one-fourth of a yield. W. H. DeShazo, one of the most extensive farmers of Kings George county, has 250 acres in corn growing in the water. He usually has a tremendous crop, probably from 1,500 to 2,000 barrels. Now he says he will consider himself lucky if he makes 250 barrels. There are similar cases in all of the surrounding counties.

Rev. W. F. Dunaway, D. D., of Lancaster county, has tendered his resignation as pastor of four Baptist churches in that county, to take effect at the close of the present year.

C. E. Blinn, a prominent farmer of Middlesex county, is offering an experiment in irrigating his cornfields. He has a large pump driven by a five-horse-power gasoline engine to pump water from two creeks on his farm. He has one half-mile of two-inch pipe stretched across his cornfields.

er of the summer at the Chester Hotel in Chester.

Miss Meta Randolph, who was operated on two weeks ago for appendicitis at the Memorial Hospital, has been moved to her home, 919 Floyd Avenue.

Miss Rena King has returned to her home on Floyd Avenue, after spending several days at Chester as the guest of Miss Margaret Thaw.

Mrs. Frank C. Lertz and daughters, Catherine and Effie, of Newport News, are visiting the former's niece, Mrs. T. J. Sanderlin, on North Twenty-fifth Street.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Moncre are in Richmond, after spending several weeks at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gilmore, of Atlanta, who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Miller here last week, have returned to "Woodlawn," in Louisa county for the remainder of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Meara, who have been in Atlantic City at the Hotel Lexington for two weeks, will return to Richmond Friday.

Mr. Hart and Miss Hart, of Rocky Mount, N. C., are spending several days at 215 East Franklin Street.

Loose Lives in Fire.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Green Bay, Va., July 31.—The home of Grant Stokes, colored, near here, was destroyed by fire Saturday night, and three of his children were burned, one of them so badly that it died to-day. A colored woman was so badly burned that death resulted. Two of the children are now hovering between life and death, and the physician holds out very little hope of recovery for either of them.

ROBBER DISSATISFIED WITH SIZE OF HIS "HAUL"
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Suffolk, Va., July 31.—The next time I hold you up and you don't produce more than this, I'm going to kill you. Now go.
This was the final warning given to-day to "Major" Thwait, a negro section hand, who was held up at the point of a gun by an unknown white highwayman near Lummis. The robber got two bunches of keys, a pocket handkerchief, 41 cents in cash, and a full dinner pail. The highwayman escaped.

Farmers' Institutes will be held in the Rappahannock Valley under the auspices of the State Department of Agriculture, at the following places on the dates named: The Hague, Westmoreland county, August 15; Warsaw, Richmond county, August 16; Heathsville, Northumberland county, August 17; Kilmarnock, Lancaster county, August 18; Middlesex county, August 19; Springs, Middlesex county, August 22; Tappanahock, Essex county, August 23; Middlesex county, August 24; Mangochick, in King William county, August 25, and at Bowling Green, in Caroline county, August 26. Tidewater District Convention of the Christian Churches will meet at Rappahannock Church, in Essex county, on August 2, 3 and 4.

The Roney gold mine property in Spotsylvania county, containing 75 acres, was sold here at public auction by F. M. Chichester, Lee J. Graves and G. R. Swift and purchased by Z. B. Faulkner, of Spotsylvania, for $7,500.

The drought which has been prevailing in this section for months is the most severe and destructive for many years. The farmers are despondent over the condition of their crops and even with a good season from now on they could not obtain more than one-fourth of a yield. W. H. DeShazo, one of the most extensive farmers of Kings George county, has 250 acres in corn growing in the water. He usually has a tremendous crop, probably from 1,500 to 2,000 barrels. Now he says he will consider himself lucky if he makes 250 barrels. There are similar cases in all of the surrounding counties.

Rev. W. F. Dunaway, D. D., of Lancaster county, has tendered his resignation as pastor of four Baptist churches in that county, to take effect at the close of the present year.

C. E. Blinn, a prominent farmer of Middlesex county, is offering an experiment in irrigating his cornfields. He has a large pump driven by a five-horse-power gasoline engine to pump water from two creeks on his farm. He has one half-mile of two-inch pipe stretched across his cornfields.

OLD SOLDIERS HAVE REUNION
Gala Day at Old Fluvanna When Veterans Meet on Courthouse Green.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Palmyra, Va., July 31.—The last Saturday in July is always a gala day for Fluvanna's "Old Soldiers" day brings together on the courthouse green men, women and children from every part of the county, and many from adjoining counties. It is a remarkable fact that since the Fluvanna Camp of Confederate Veterans was organized in 1896, with the late Colonel William B. Pettit as commander, the annual reunion day has been a perfect day for an all-day picnic. Saturday was an ideal day for the occasion, and the crowd of happy, hard-working old people and groups of merry girls and boys was unusually large.

Captain Charles Sneed, commander, called the camp together at 1 o'clock with about seventy veterans present. Since the last reunion eleven have answered the final roll call. Mr. Haden made a short and appropriate memorial address, and St. George Bryan presented to the camp a full-length picture of the late commander, Colonel B. E. Russell. The "promotional" address, and held the crowd with the history, humor and pathos of the years "old-timer" high. He paid high tribute to the soldiers of Fluvanna, and closed with a beautiful original poem. Dinner was served under the trees, first to the soldiers and then to the crowd, with plenty to spare. In the afternoon the camp again convened, and after transacting the usual business, listened with much pleasure to patriotic addresses delivered by George Sneed and Edlow Sneed, talented sons of veterans.

Refreshments were served on the grounds during the day for the benefit of the Methodist parsonage, and an entertaining minstrel show was given for the same purpose in the courthouse by the young people of "Wealeys Chapel."

Have Earned a Rest.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., July 31.—William H. "Old Soldier" was known farmer of Stafford county, had up to a few days ago three horses, aged respectively thirty-nine, thirty-seven and twenty years. One of them, aged thirty-seven, died last week. The one thirty-nine years old is now on the pension list, and the one at twenty years is doing active duty.

OLD SOLDIERS HAVE REUNION
Gala Day at Old Fluvanna When Veterans Meet on Courthouse Green.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Palmyra, Va., July 31.—The last Saturday in July is always a gala day for Fluvanna's "Old Soldiers" day brings together on the courthouse green men, women and children from every part of the county, and many from adjoining counties. It is a remarkable fact that since the Fluvanna Camp of Confederate Veterans was organized in 1896, with the late Colonel William B. Pettit as commander, the annual reunion day has been a perfect day for an all-day picnic. Saturday was an ideal day for the occasion, and the crowd of happy, hard-working old people and groups of merry girls and boys was unusually large.

Captain Charles Sneed, commander, called the camp together at 1 o'clock with about seventy veterans present. Since the last reunion eleven have answered the final roll call. Mr. Haden made a short and appropriate memorial address, and St. George Bryan presented to the camp a full-length picture of the late commander, Colonel B. E. Russell. The "promotional" address, and held the crowd with the history, humor and pathos of the years "old-timer" high. He paid high tribute to the soldiers of Fluvanna, and closed with a beautiful original poem. Dinner was served under the trees, first to the soldiers and then to the crowd, with plenty to spare. In the afternoon the camp again convened, and after transacting the usual business, listened with much pleasure to patriotic addresses delivered by George Sneed and Edlow Sneed, talented sons of veterans.

Refreshments were served on the grounds during the day for the benefit of the Methodist parsonage, and an entertaining minstrel show was given for the same purpose in the courthouse by the young people of "Wealeys Chapel."

Have Earned a Rest.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., July 31.—William H. "Old Soldier" was known farmer of Stafford county, had up to a few days ago three horses, aged respectively thirty-nine, thirty-seven and twenty years. One of them, aged thirty-seven, died last week. The one thirty-nine years old is now on the pension list, and the one at twenty years is doing active duty.

OLD SOLDIERS HAVE REUNION
Gala Day at Old Fluvanna When Veterans Meet on Courthouse Green.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Palmyra, Va., July 31.—The last Saturday in July is always a gala day for Fluvanna's "Old Soldiers" day brings together on the courthouse green men, women and children from every part of the county, and many from adjoining counties. It is a remarkable fact that since the Fluvanna Camp of Confederate Veterans was organized in 1896, with the late Colonel William B. Pettit as commander, the annual reunion day has been a perfect day for an all-day picnic. Saturday was an ideal day for the occasion, and the crowd of happy, hard-working old people and groups of merry girls and boys was unusually large.

Captain Charles Sneed, commander, called the camp together at 1 o'clock with about seventy veterans present. Since the last reunion eleven have answered the final roll call. Mr. Haden made a short and appropriate memorial address, and St. George Bryan presented to the camp a full-length picture of the late commander, Colonel B. E. Russell. The "promotional" address, and held the crowd with the history, humor and pathos of the years "old-timer" high. He paid high tribute to the soldiers of Fluvanna, and closed with a beautiful original poem. Dinner was served under the trees, first to the soldiers and then to the crowd, with plenty to spare. In the afternoon the camp again convened, and after transacting the usual business, listened with much pleasure to patriotic addresses delivered by George Sneed and Edlow Sneed, talented sons of veterans.